

21st Century Leadership

A Short Course
(bearing credits towards a Masters
Degree Qualification)

Developed by New Era Leadership

This module, 21st Century Leadership, is developed to equip current and future managers and students with insights and practical tools for the development and practice of their leadership. It is an elective in the Leonardo program of The Da Vinci Institute. The module has a 12 credit points bearing towards a Masters qualification. The module entails a 2-day workshop and a post module assignment.

Outcomes

People completing this module would be able to:

- Describe different leadership theories
- Differentiate between management and leadership
- Integrate recent leadership insights in the field of work and business
- Interpret the dynamics of their work organisation with regards to change and culture
- Identify their leadership strengths and weaknesses
- Recognise and respond more effectively to leadership challenges
- Lead others with enhanced insight in what it takes to be an effective leader
- Lead others with heightened self awareness
- Make the right choices to develop their leadership and grow their experience
- Recognise leadership potential in others
- Follow 21st century leadership style and practises

About The Da Vinci Institute

The Da Vinci Institute for Technology Management (Pty) Ltd is one of South Africa's leading educational institutions. The Da Vinci Institute is a school of management specializing in developing concepts and learning solutions related to the Management of Technology, Innovation, People and Systems. The Da Vinci Institute is registered with the Department of Education as a Private Higher Education Institution and its qualifications are accredited by the Council on Higher Education and are recorded with the South African Qualifications Authority (SAQA).

For information regarding the Master of Science: Management of Technology and Innovation visit <http://institute.davinci.ac.za> and click on education.

Register

To register, contact Dr Gerhard van Rensburg for an application form and payment details.

Enquiries: Dr Gerhard van Rensburg

Telephone: 083 455 6513

Email: gerhard@neweraleadership.co.za